And whereas by an Act made in the Twenty-fourth Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act to extend the Powers of an Act, made in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, for giving His Majesty certain Powers for the better carrying on Trade and Commerce between the Subjects of His Majesty's Dominions and the Inhabitants of the United States of America, to the Trade and Commerce of this Kingdom with the British Colonies and Plantations in America, with Respect to certain Articles therein mentioned," the Powers given by the said recited Act were extended to the Trade and Intercourse between this Kingdom and the British Colonies and Plantations in America, so far as the same might relate to Iron, Hemp and Sailcloth, and other Articles of the Produce of any Place bordering on the Baltic,

Gloucester House, April 11.

This Day the Prince de Castellicala, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the King of the Two Sicilies, had an Audience of Leave of His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester:

And afterwards the Duke de Sicignano, his Successor in the same Character, had his first Private Audience of His Royal Highness:

To which they were respectively introduced by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, April 13.

THE following Addresses have been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Huntingdon, beg Leave to approach your Royal Person, and to renew our most sincere Assurances of Allegiance to your Majesty at this most important Juncture, when the present Rulers of France, impelled by restless Ambition, and setting aside the Faith of Treaties, have commenced open Hostilities against your Majesty's Subjects.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall be ever ready to give our firm and vigorous Support in prosecuting this just and necessary War, into which your Majesty has been forced, by the unprovoked Aggression of your Enemies, who have shewn themselves Foes, not only to your Majesty, but to the general Peace and Happiness of Europe.

Confiding in the Wisdom of your Majesty's Counsels, the Bravery of your Forces and Allies, and, above all, in the Justice of our Cause, we indulge the well-grounded Hope, that the present War will be happily terminated by an honourable and lasting Peace.

That your Majesty may long continue to reign over a free, happy and united People, is the most ardent Wish of our Hearts.

[Presented by the Duke of Manchester and the Representatives in Parliament for the said County.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, the Members of the Presbytery of Deer, having met at Crimond this Day, for the first Time since the 28th of November last, beg Leave, in this Season of public Danger and Alarm, to approach your Throne with the warmest Declarations of our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We behold, with Regret, the late Attempts of disaffected and designing Men, who, by forming illegal Associations and circulating seditious Writings, have endeavoured to infuse into the Minds of our Fellow-Subjects a Spirit of Discontent and Dissatisfaction with our present Constitution and Form of Government, under the happy Influence of which the Country has grown into a State of envied and unparalleled Greatness. We are happy, however, to assure your Majesty, that the most unfeigned Loyalty and Attachment to our excellent Constitution prevails among the People committed to our Care.

We behold with Satisfaction the Measures which are taken, both for internal Security and the Support of the National Honour, against the Insults of those who are associated for the Purpose of subverting every regular Government, and of introducing Anarchy and Ruin into every Country which may fall under their Power.

With the heartfelt Satisfaction natural to the Subjects of a free State, we have heard of the very important Advantages gained by your Majesty's Arms, in Conjunction with your Allies. Relying on the Protection of Divine Providence, the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the Spirit and Conduct of the Commanders employed in your Majesty's Service, we look forwards with the most pleasing

Hopes to the happy Termination of the unavoidable War, which has for its Object the Preservation of our free and excellent Constitution, and of every Thing that is dear to us as Men and as Christians.

Convinced that we owe our Liberties, Civil and Religious, to the Stability of the Government under which we live, it shall ever be our Study to inspire those over whom we have Influence with the warmest Sense of the Security and Felicity which they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and paternal Administration.

That the Blessing of Heaven may continue to attend your Majesty's Councils; that the Lord God of Hosts may go with your Majesty's Fleets and Armies, and crown them with Victory; and that your Majesty may long reign the Sovereign of a free, happy and united People, are the fervent Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty,

Your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects,

The Ministers of the Presbytery of Deer.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by John Craigie, Moderator.

Borough of Knareborough.

The Honorable John Townshend, commonly called Lord John Townshend, in the Room of the Right Honorable Frederick Ponsonby, commonly called Lord Viscount Duncannon, now Lord Ponsonby, called up to the House of Peers.

County of Warwick.

Sir John Mordaunt, Baronet, in the room of Sir Robert Lawley, Baronet, deceased.

Javis, 11^o Die Aprilis, 1793.

WHEREAS the Select Committee appointed to try and determine the Merits of the Petition of the Honourable William Wesley Pole and Robert Wood, Esquire, and also the Petition of Christopher Clayton, the Reverend William Smelle, and William Bell, Electors of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Great Grimsby in the County of Lincoln, on Behalf of themselves and many other Electors of the said Borough, severally complaining of an undue Election and Return for the said Borough, have this Day reported to the House of Commons, That it appeared to the said Select Committee that the Merits of the Petitions did in Part depend upon the Right of Election; and that thereupon the said Committee required the Counsel for the several Parties to deliver to the Clerk of the said Committee Statements in Writing of the Right of Election for which they respectively contended: That in consequence thereof the Counsel for the said Petitioners the Honourable William Wesley Pole and Robert Wood, Esquire, and also for the said Petitioners Electors of the Borough of Great Grimsby, delivered in a Statement as follows; "The Counsel,

"set for the Petitioners state, that the Right of Election of Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Great Grimsby in the County of Lincoln is in the Mayor of the said Borough for the Time being, and in all the resident Freemen of the said Borough, paying Scot and Lot, whether they do or do not bear Corporate Offices in the said Borough, and in such Freemen as shall claim to vote at the first Election of a Burgess or Burgesses to serve in Parliament for the said Borough, that shall happen within Twelve Months next after their Admission, although such Freemen have not, subsequent to their Admission, been resident or paid Scot and Lot within the said Borough." That the Counsel for the Sitting Members, John Harrison and Dudley Long North, Esquires, delivered in a Statement as follows; "The Counsel for the Sitting Members state, that the Right of Election for the Borough of Great Grimsby, in the County of Lincoln, is in the Freemen whose Names are duly on the Call List, such Freemen paying Scot and Lot in all Cases except where no Rate for the Relief of the Poor has taken Place subsequent to their Admission." That upon the Statement delivered in by the Counsel for the said several Petitioners the said Select Committee have determined, "That the Right of Election, as set forth in the said Statement, is not the Right of Election for the said Borough of Great Grimsby." That the said Select Committee, having duly considered the said Statements, and the Evidence adduced before them touching the Right of Election, have determined, "That the Right of Election of Members to serve in Parliament for the Borough of Great Grimsby in the County of Lincoln is in the Freemen of the said Borough, admitted at a full Court by the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Councilmen and Burgesses, such Freemen being resident, and paying Scot and Lot in all Cases except where no Rate has taken Place subsequent to their Admission." I do hereby give this Notice, in pursuance of the Directions of an Act made in the Twenty-eighth Year of the Reign of His present Majesty, intituled, "An Act for the further Regulation of the Trials of controverted Elections or Returns of Members to serve in Parliament." Given under my Hand the Eleventh Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-three.

HENRY ADDINGTON, Speaker.

SEVERAL Inhabitants, Housekeepers of the Town and Port of Seaford in the County of Sussex, paying Scot and Lot within the said Town and Port, whose Names are thereunto subscribed, being Electors of Members to represent the said Town and Port in Parliament, on Behalf of themselves and other Electors for the said Town and Port, having this Day presented their Petition to the House of Commons, setting forth, that upon the Nineteenth Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-two, the Select Committee who were appointed to try and determine the Merits of a Petition of Sir Godfrey Webster, Baronet, and John Tatton, Esquire, against the Return of Members to serve in Parliament for the said Town and Port of Seaford, reported to the House that they had determined,

"That the Right of Election is in the Inhabitants Housekeepers of the said Town and Port paying Scot and Lot, and in such Inhabitants Housekeepers only." That certain Persons, pretending to be Electors of Members to serve in Parliament for the said Town and Port, having on the Twelfth Day of February last presented a Petition to the House, praying, that they may be admitted as Parties, according to the Form of the Statute in that Case lately made and provided, to oppose the said Right of Election in Favour of which the said Select Committee have reported as aforesaid: And the Petitioners insisting that the said Right of Election, in Favour of which the said Select Committee have determined as aforesaid, is the true Right of Election for the said Town and Port of Seaford, the Petitioners therefore humbly pray the House that they may be admitted as Parties to defend such Right of Election so reported to the House as aforesaid, and that they may have such further and other Relief as to the House shall seem meet. I do hereby give Notice that the House has appointed Monday the Fifth Day of August next, at the same Time that the Petition of the several Persons, whose Names are thereunto subscribed, on Behalf of themselves and others, being legal Electors of Members to serve in Parliament for the Town and Port of Seaford in the County of Sussex, respecting the Right of Election for the said Town and Port, is ordered to be considered, to take the said Petition into Consideration. Given under my Hand the Tenth Day of April, One thousand seven hundred and ninety-three.

HENRY ADDINGTON, Speaker.

Coblence, April 1.

A Detachment from the French Army, of about 2000 Men, has been defeated by Prince Louis of Prussia, at a Village behind His Prussian Majesty's Head Quarters. In this Action above 900 Men and 45 Officers (of whom Four were Field Officers) were taken Prisoners: The Prussians also took Five Pieces of Cannon and Two Pair of Colours.

The Prussians have reached the Banks of the Rhine near Oppenheim, and cut off all Communication between France and Mayence, which is hemmed in on every Side. On the Night of the 31st Ultimo, His Prussian Majesty established his Head Quarters at Gunterblum: His advanced Posts were, on one Hand, beyond Oppenheim, and, on the other, at Worms. The Prince Royal (who commands the Reserve) is at Ingelheim, between which and the Head Quarters a great Body of the Army is cantoned, with its Front towards Mayence. The Cavalry occupy chiefly the Villages between Oppenheim and Alzey, fronting towards France. On their Right is the Corps of Austrians, which Prince Hohenloe has left under the Command of General Kalkreuther. The Bridge of Pontons is removed from Bacarach to Bingen.

Antwerp, April 8.

Intelligence has been received here, that General Dumourier has quitted his Army and retired to Mons, where he now is. He was accompanied by about 1000 Horse, and from 1 to 2000 Infantry. After his Departure the French Army is said to have broken to Pieces: Many went Home, and others threw themselves into the neighbouring Garrisons of Lille, Valenciennes, Condé, Mauberge, &c. The strong and important Post of Maulde being left nearly open, a Detachment of the Prince de Cobourg's Army took Possession of it Yesterday, and formed the Blockade of Condé. The Armistice has been declared to be at an End.
